

The board of trustees has overall responsibility for the financial management of the school but delegates the day-to-day management of the school's finance's and budget to the principal.

1. Financial Management

The financial viability of the school must be protected at all times. Safeguards and robust, clear procedures must be put in place to ensure the financial health of the school and avoid risk. Therefore,

1. The budget allows for sufficient funds to ensure the special catholic character of the school is maintained and developed.
2. Only Board approved debt or liability may be incurred.
3. Generally accepted accounting practices or principles are followed.
4. Tagged/committed funds are used for approved purposes only.
5. Crown funds are spent in accordance with the PSCIA.
6. More funds than have been allocated in the fiscal year cannot be spent without prior board approval.
7. All money owed to and handled by the school is managed in a timely manner.
8. Timely payment to staff and other creditors is made.
9. When making any sale, board approval is first sought.
10. All relevant government returns are completed on time.
11. No one person has complete authority over the school's financial transactions.
12. Any fundraising activities meet the requirements of the PSCIA.
13. When making any purchase:
 - of over $2,500, comparative prices must be obtained.
 - of over $2,500, an adequate review on ongoing costs, value and reliability is undertaken.
11. When making any purchase on a single item outside of budget, board approval is first required.
12. Effective systems are in place to meet the requirements of the payroll system.

2. Annual Budget

The principal, in association with a specially delegated Finance Committee, is responsible for recommending an annual operating and capital budget to the board within the timelines specified in the Board's Annual Workplan.

Budgeting shall reflect the annual plan, avoid risking financial jeopardy and show a generally acceptable level of foresight.

Thus the budget should:

1. Reflect the results sought by the board.
2. Reflect the priorities as established by the board.
3. Allow for adequate funds for student support and operational costs.
4. Comply with the board's requirement for a balanced budget.
5. Demonstrate an appropriate degree of conservatism in all estimates.

3. Compliance Reporting

The principal is responsible for financial reporting and demonstrating budget compliance. Non-compliance and variances are to be reported to the board, with recommendations on the actions required to meet compliance.
